FIRST DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The republican election of the first congressional district, are hereby notified that a convention will be held at Clinton Junction, Tuesday, May 1st, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternates to represent this district in the national republican convention to be held at Chicago, June 19th. Also to name one presidential elector and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. Block county will be entitled to its delegates, Walworth 2, Racine 2, Jefferson 2, and Kenosha 2.

W. H. STRUBB, Chairman.

Geo. A. Yule, Secretary of Committee.

CLEVELAND DODGING HIS OWN WORDS.

A few days ago the Gazette printed a paragraph from Mr. Cleveland's own pen in which he attempted to show that a president seeking a second term was a very bad thing, and contrary to good public policy. But now that the democratic party is so short of presidential timber that it has only one man who has a ghost of a chance for an election, an effort is being made to destroy the meaning of Mr. Cleveland's declaration that a president should be disqualified from serving more than one term. His former home organ, the Buffalo Courier, following the thought and acting on the suggestion of the whitehouse authorities, has published this very strange and exceedingly weak defence: "The danger which Mr. Cleveland formerly described in his letter wholly relates to the first term. It begins with the day of inauguration of every new president. The danger, however, necessarily terminates with the presidential election in the closing year of the first term. It certainly does not affect the second term. Mr. Cleveland, therefore, never had a reason to think that a second term was 'a bad thing,' and he never declared that to be his opinion. Those, however, who with him think that a first term may be wrecked by the possibility of a second successive term will, after Mr. Cleveland's removal, have an opportunity for proposing a constitutional change by which no public party in the history of the world will be affected."

It would be difficult to find a more ridiculous piece of reasoning than this. To illustrate how little the attempt or Mr. Cleveland to crawl on his hold declaration against a second term, it is only necessary to reproduce his words which have already appeared in the Gazette: "And as a means to this end not one would, in my judgment, be more effective than an amendment to the constitution, which should read: 'No president shall be elected for a second term.' When we consider the patronage of this great office, the attainment of power, the temptation to retain public place once gained, and more than all, the availability of party discipline in such a case, it is not surprising that the men whom the world has seen with a coat of arms and a sword, and a sword of the hope of favors yet to come stand ready to add with money and trained political service, to the dignity of the office, a danger to the nation, a most serious danger to that calm, deliberate, intelligent political action which must characterize a government by the people."

Nothing plainer than this could be written against the second term principle. It is plain English, and interprets itself. And yet some of the hydebound mugwump papers and the servile democratic journals claim that Mr. Cleveland is not bound by his declaration against a second term, giving the people to understand that the great reform president meant nothing by making that declaration.

LET OTHERS FOLLOW HIS EXAMPLE.

Mr. Frederick Layton, of Milwaukee, settled in that city when he was a young man and very poor. He went into the business of bootmaking, worked hard, was sober-minded, always industrious, very economical, and in the course of years made a fortune. The press of the north-west, and also the metropolitan journals of the east, have had a good many good things to say of Mr. Layton of late, and the following from the New York World furnishes a text for a splendid lay-sermon on public spirit in men of wealth:

Milwaukee possesses a citizen who has done his city good and himself much credit, besides furnishing an example of a typical, successful American. Such a man is paradoxically called typical, apparently, because there are so few like him. Frederick Layton not so many years ago was wearing a white apron in his own butcher shop in Milwaukee, and serving his customers fairly and honestly. His thrift supplied him with capital for larger enterprise than his shop gave scope to, and he widened his operations in the produce line, not forgetting his retail business, until he had made considerable wealth. On Thursday he formally presented the people of his city an art gallery costing $100,000, with $50,000 worth of pictures in it, and a check of $100,000 as an endowment. In the way of a clear-cut act of generosity and good will to humanity it is not often that Mr. Layton's compactly-executed plan is equaled. If Milwaukee has a civic crown lying by, it is not that it will wait long before it finds a man more worthy of it than Mr. Layton.

It is a fact that compared with the amount of unused wealth in all our cities, there are but few men like Frederick Layton. He is worth about one million dollars, a good deal more than he will ever be able to use, and so he very wisely concluded to give one quarter of it to art. To him a civic crown is due, for men in his condition do not always do so wisely as he has done, in fact they seldom do anything which will compel their fellow citizens to hold them in grateful remembrance when their money-making days are ended.

Every city of any note in this state contains someone who has more wealth than they can spend, and how much they could honor themselves and bless the community in which they live if they had some of Mr. Layton's generosity and good will to humanity.

AN INTERESTING TALK OF THE GROWTH OF THE TEMPERANCE SENTIMENT IN GREAT BRITAIN IS FURNISHED BY A CORRESPONDENT OF THE ST. JAMES'S GAZETTE. HE SHOWS THAT DURING THE PAST FORTY SEVEN YEARS THE AVERAGE ANNUAL CONSUMPTION OF TOBACCO IN THE UNITED KINGDOM HAS INCREASED FROM LESS THAN A POUND AND A QUARTER TO NINETEEN POUNDS AND ONE OUNCE, FROM ABOUT AN OUNCE AND A QUARTER TO NEARLY HALF A POUND, WHILE THE USE OF COFFEE HAS FALLEN OFF SLIGHTLY, FROM SEVENTEEN OUNCES TO THIRTEEN OUNCES. THE TOTAL CONSUMPTION OF THESE THREE LEADING NON-ALCOHOLIC DRINKS HAS THEREFORE INCREASED NEARLY THREE-FOLD; THE EXACT FIGURES ARE FROM 35.05 OUNCES TO 99.04 OUNCES PER CAPITA ANNUALLY. THIS MAY NOT INDICATE A FULLY CORRESPONDING DECREASE IN THE CONSUMPTION OF STRONG DRINK; BUT IT MUST MEAN A CONSIDERABLE DECREASE, AND IT PROVES THAT THE PEOPLE ARE LEARNING TO APPRECIATE THE "CUP THAT BEERS BUT NOT ICEBERGS."

AN ARKANSAS VIEW ON THE TARIFF, ALTHOUGH IT IS DEMOCRATIC, IS NOT A BAD ONE, AS WILL BE SEEN FROM THE LITTLE ROCK WORKMAN: MILLS MAY BE, AS THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION CALLS HIM, A "GLITTERING SNAKE," BUT WHEN, IN A MISERABLE GERRYMANDERING SCHEME TO GET VOTES FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES, HE THREATENS SUCH DESTRUCTION TO OUR MATERIAL GROWTH, AND TO OUR RICH TIMBER AND MINERAL RESOURCES, IT IS CERTAINLY IN ORDER FOR US TO PROCEED TO TAKE THE GLITTER OUT OF HIM AND LET HIM STAND LIKE ANY OTHER OF HIS KIND. WE WANT NO POLITICS OR SCHEMES OF POLITICIANS THAT WILL DESTROY OUR BUSINESS INTERESTS OR RETARD OUR MATERIAL GROWTH. UNDER EXISTING LAWS, TENNESSEE, ALABAMA, GEORGIA AND THE CAROLINAS ARE BEING COVERED WITH FACTORIES, MINES AND OTHERS RISING UP AS IF BY MAGIC, FURNISHING A HOME MARKET FOR ALL OUR PRODUCTS. ARKANSAS, RICH IN HER NATURAL WEALTH THAN ANY OTHER STATE, IS JUST STAGGERING. LET NO POLITICAL AXE-GRINDING BLIGHT HER PROSPECTS. BUSINESS BEFORE POLITICS, IF YOU PLEASE, GENTLEMEN.

THE MISDEED IN THE ADMINISTRATION, SAYS THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, ARE TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION IN DETAIL, BUT IT SAYS THIS OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE: "PEACE," EXCLAIMS THE SECRETARY OF STATE; "WE SHALL ALWAYS BE PEACEFUL IF IT TAKES BLOOD TO KEEP US SO," IS THE POLICY OF MR. BLAINE. AMERICANS ARE INSULTED, ABUSED AND SARCASMED IN EVERY PART OF THE GLOBE, AND THIS HAS COME TO PASS BECAUSE THE PRESIDENT HAS IN THE PROTECTION OF THE AMERICAN FLAG HAS DISAPPEARED.

THE GRANT MEMORIAL SOCIETY, OF ALABAMA, TENNESSEE, WILL OBSERVE GENERAL GRANT'S BIRTHDAY, APRIL 27, WITH APPROPRIATE CEREMONIES. PRESIDENT SPENCER WILL PRESIDE. JUDGE ROSS, OF MINNESOTA, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, WILL DELIVER THE ORATION. THE UNIVERSITY WAS FOUNDED IN 1897, GENERAL GRANT CONTRIBUTING THE FIRST CASH DONATION. IT HAS TURNED OUT OVER A THOUSAND PREACHERS AND TEACHERS, AND OWNS PROPERTY VALUED AT $200,000.

HIGH LICENSE HAS CUT DOWN THE NUMBER OF SALOONS IN PITTSBURGH ABOUT FIFTY-SIX PER CENT. LAST YEAR THERE WERE BETWEEN 1,400 AND 1,600. THIS YEAR 223 LICENSES HAVE BEEN GRANTED, AND THE WORK IS PRACTICALLY FINISHED, THE COMMERCIAL GAZETTE SAYS; FEW IF ANY, MORE WILL BE GRANTED. TEMPERANCE MEN ARE REJOICING OVER THIS RADICAL CHANGE.

THE CHIEF ISSUE WITH THE MUGWUMPS IS MR. BLAINE'S HEALTH. THEY ARE STILL TRYING TO MAKE HIM VERY SICK, BUT HE SEEMS TO BE ONE OF THE LIVELIEST MEN IN EUROPE, AND THIS FACT THROWS THE DEER MUGWUMPS INTO ALMOST UTTER HOPELESSNESS.

THE MORALS AT STEVENS POINT SEEM TO BE IMPROVING SOMEWHAT. IRVINGSON AND ROE, WHO WANTED TO SHOOT EACH OTHER, HAVE MUTUALLY AGREED NOT TO DO SO FOR THE PRESENT.

VERY RESEMBLE "JAPANS."

In Japan the old-school physicians are permitted to wear only wooden swords. This is a gently sarcastic way of expressing the opinion that they kill enough people without using weapons. But the druggists who introduced the medical diagnosis of the Mikado himself is said to have toned up his system by its use, and the importer was therefore permitted the exceptional honor of wearing the sword of nobility.

LOVE AND DIPLOMACY IN GERMANY.

The Emperor Declares Her Sacrifice of Her Daughter on the Altar of the Fatherland—The Betrothal Said to Be Postponed.

STATECRAFT AND SENTIMENT AT ISSUE.

Berlin, April 13.—The Cologne Gazette states that Prince Bismarck's interview with the Empress on Tuesday and his audience with the Emperor Wednesday resulted in bringing the question of the marriage of Prince Alexander and the Princess Victoria to a standstill. The crisis, in so far as it relates to the Chancellor, is not likely to reach a more acute stage within the near future.

Despatches from Vienna affirm that the interview between Prince Bismarck and the Czar in November last had reference to the proposed marriage of Prince Alexander and the Princess Victoria, and the Chancellor at the time declared that such marriage should never take place, at least while his advice was accepted.

Baron Reppenbach will cause a semi-official statement to be issued at Karlsruhe denying that any personal or political motives should ever enter into the Chancellor's views on any official post, not even in the case of Prince Alexander.

PRINCE ALEXANDER.

case of Chancellor Bismarck's retirement. The Baron upon all occasions has strongly maintained the necessity of keeping Prince Bismarck at the head of affairs.

Prince von Hohenhausen, Governor of Alsace-Lorraine, is spoken of as a possible successor to Prince Bismarck. It is said that he returned an evasive reply when sounded upon the matter.

The North German Gazette, referring to the attack of the Progressist newspaper upon Prince Bismarck for what they term his officious interference in imperial family affairs, says:

"Such insinuations make as little impression upon Emperor Frederick as similar criticisms from the same source did on his father, now deceased. Prince Bismarck was appointed Chancellor of the empire by both of them that they might receive responsible advice according to his knowledge and conscience. They never doubted that Prince Bismarck would watch over the interests of the empire as attentively as over the interests of the country. This confidence stands quite apart from the question whether or not the Chancellor retains the title of Minister. It would have no existence if it were thought possible that the Chancellor could belie his own declarations and act dishonorably towards the Emperor in order to remain in office."

The Post states that at the conclusion of her long conference with Prince Bismarck the Empress greeted the Chancellor with the words: "I am glad to see you."

RECEIVED A $15,000 PENSION.

OWNERSHIP, Ky., April 13.—Perhaps the largest pension ever paid by the Government to any one for services as a private soldier has just been awarded John Van, who lives a very short distance east of this place. The pension, $72 a month, is for total blindness, and dating back to the beginning of Vice's application in the first year of the war of the rebellion now looks up something over $14,000. Van was already poor and has a helpless family. This large sum of money is something beyond this poor fellow's wildest dreams.

A Vain Plea for Mercy.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 13.—Governor Hill refused yesterday to interfere in the case of "Happy" Bob Van Brunt, who will be hanged to-day at Watervliet, N. Y., for killing Frank Roy. The latter objected to Van Brunt's attorneys to his sister, and in the guard the fatal shot was fired. Eva Roy, the girl in the case, made an impassioned appeal to the Governor for clemency, and when told that the law must take its course fell in a faint, and when resuscitated avowed again. It was found necessary to send her to a hospital.

Many Ballots Taken.

GALLUP, O., April 13.—The Republican Congressional convention for the Eleventh Ohio district, after 350 ballots for Congressmen, adjourned near midnight to resume balloting at 8:30 to-day. From first to last there was not a change in the ballot. Each party in the district had its candidate for which it voted persistently. Jackson County's candidate, H. S. Dundy, Governor Foraker's father-in-law, had the largest number of votes, 24.

The Fate of the Bald-Knobbers.

OSAK, Mo., April 13.—A verdict of guilty was returned against the "Bald-Knobber club," Dave Walker, yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged May 18, with Earl Walker and the two Matthews. Parson C. O. Simmons and John C. Hays, who were also indicted in the first degree, Stomley and Jones were each given twenty-one years in the penitentiary and Preacher Simmons twelve.

Horrible Murder.

BONHOMME, Ky., April 13.—A month ago two peddlers disappeared near Pulaski. On Wednesday a woman named Smith, who had been living with the Hays, was discovered and confessed. The Hays had been in the house while she cut their throats with a knife. The bodies were robbed, cut in pieces and given to the dogs. The men were arrested at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Miss Parsons Returns.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 13.—Miss Parsons, the girl who was thought to have been abducted and secreted by Ensign Ryan, of the navy, has returned to her home and exonerated Ryan from all blame. The young lady had been taken to New York to be married, and was going back there in a few days. Her parents thought they had lost her.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The President has appointed Frederick R. Conder, of New York, Franklin MacVeagh, of Illinois, Alexander G. Haskell, of South Carolina, M. A. Hanna, of Ohio, and James A. Savage, of Nebraska, as Government directors of the Union Pacific Railway Company.

ONE IN TEN.

This is the Chance Left for Mr. Conkling's Recovery—His Condition Said to Be Improving Rapidly.

New York, April 13.—Roosevelt Conkling is stronger now than he has been for days, and the doctors say that he has now a fair chance for recovery. Mr. Conkling spent one of the last nights Wednesday after his illness. The periodical attacks of delirium did not manifest themselves at all during the night. The patient slept off and on and there were few, if any, symptoms of pain exhibited during his sleep. At about 3 o'clock Thursday morning he awoke and was given a drink, when he dozed off soon again and up to 8:30 o'clock was still sleeping soundly. Dr. Barker called on Mr. Conkling at 10:10 o'clock yesterday morning. He found no change to speak of, but what little change there was was for the better. Mr. Conkling's temperature then was 99 and his pulse 88. He disliked to have the doctors treated. At 5:10 o'clock Edward Stokes came out for a half-hour's stay. He said that Mr. Conkling was very nervous, but recognized him by an inclination of the head. Mr. Stokes did not wish to disturb his patient, so he merely accepted him pleasantly and left the room. Mr. Stokes was not favorably impressed by the appearance of the sufferer. Dr. Barker and Stokes called at the house at 9:10 p. m. and remained in consultation until nearly 11 o'clock. Then the doctors left, and Dr. Barker told the reporters that Mr. Conkling was in splendid condition. When he went into the room Mr. Conkling recognized him and said: "I am glad to see you doctor." Then he went to sleep and is now sleeping quietly. Since 5 o'clock he has taken fifteen ounces of milk. The doctor says he did not take his pulse or temperature, but felt his pulse and found it good. According to Dr. Barker Mr. Conkling has now a fair chance for recovering—about one in ten.

NOT APPROVED BY POWDERLY.

He Opposes the Action of the Knights in Going to Work on the "Q."

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—In a letter to a labor journal Mr. Powderly says he does not approve of the Knights of Labor taking the Brotherhood of Railroad Carpenters on the Baltimore road. He says: "I am willing to enter into a compact with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen to look after and guard the interests of labor for the future." In another letter he refers to his recent "special call" for an assessment of fifteen cents on each member to raise a fund for the purpose of hiring lecturers for the instruction of members of the order. He says the intention is to give the plan a trial, so that the next general assembly may have a basis to work on in deciding whether or not to continue it.

AN ENTIRE VILLAGE BURNED.

Marys, Md., Destroyed by Fire—The Inhabitants Without Food or Shelter.

CHESBROUGH, Md., April 13.—The town of Marys, a pretty little village in the upper part of the State, was almost entirely destroyed by fire yesterday, which started in a stable near the blacksmith shop. The wind was very strong and bore the flames to the top of the houses. The only escape was by a narrow path through the trees. The stable, fourteen houses were destroyed and a number of business places, the only building left standing in the village being the school house. The families are without food, but have taken shelter in some empty freight cars. The heaviest loss is Dr. C. H. Masey, who lost three dwellings and a large store. Stephen Meyer is also a heavy loser.
